

School Matters December 2016 Issue No.23

Dear Parents and Carers,

When I was in class this week a number of children said that they didn't have the Christmas Story as a book at home. I thought families might like some resources to help with this. You could share the story from these links.

This link tells the story as a movie.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=S42szZFGmZw>

This is a good website for younger children

<http://www.whychristmas.com/story/birth.shtml>

This website has many bible stories as a slide show with the story for you to read. Click on the 'Good News Publications' on the linked page. It takes you to the slide shows.

<http://www.freebibleimages.org/contributors/#lumo>

Enjoy reading the story with your children.

This link is to a website that has printable resources for you to use for your child.

<http://www.activityvillage.co.uk/the-nativity-story-printable>

The children will have the opportunity to re-visit the story in their classes but it will be lovely for you to share at home as well.

Enjoy and God Bless

Mrs Clewlow